LIMMY

The boy I am going to speak of is about ten years old tall straight and stout he is the son of Ethan Allen and like him in many ways the greatest of which is his fondness for the water Ethan Allen has made him a boat six feet long, but I am wandering a bit from my subject besides being the son of Ethan Allen (which would make other boys happy) he was the king of the other boys. One day he asked his mother if he could go down the river that ran along back of their house in his boat at she told him he might so he got in to his boat and started off down the river he had got most a mile from home when he was aware that the water was rougher than it was before he came down, but he did not think much about it and so he rowed on but presently he thought it was time to go back he turned around his boat but in doing so he noticed it turned around kind of hard he had taken about two strokes up stream when there was a big wave that almost lifted his boat on end he went down stream two rods when the waves rolled along the boat would rock very hard and almost tip over but he managed to keep it right side up he went along at a fearful rate bow veing and rocking he managed to get in strokes once in a while at last he got into a little cove and he thought he was safe but the next wave that came swept into the cove with force enough to break most anything it had limmy's boat was upon it the st and dashed it against a large rock with the force of a giant and broke it to splinters limmy gave a cry and cleared the danger then he was dashed on and with the speed of lightning at last he caught in a little eddy and was able to do anything but at last limmy saw something floating about caught hold of it and found it on one side of his boat he leaned on to it and floated off down stream the water was icy cold he being in the spring the ice had got out of the river there and so there was no ice to encounter and so he floated on he had wondered what made the water so high now he thought the ice the devil he broke away he was getting nearly exhausted with his effort to get to shore when he came around a bend and saw ahead of him a pile of rocks and dam he thinks he is gone for but he sees a bush and grabs hold of it and jumps on shore and goes and tells all about it

THE WESTERN WORLD

Mr Allen sent him right to bed and he did not stir out doors for 2 weeks and when he came back his boat got smashed and then Allen made him a new boat before he got it then the other is ten feet long by four feet wide Limmy thinks it is just nice

WORDS CONCERNING THE NAVY

FIRST PART KING

The gun boat I am going to speak of is the King it was the first one built it was nine hundred feet long and very slim it will go very fast it carries nineteen guns as it sailed about the coast to st of the towers of the mills along the banks it tipped a little when first set in to the water but it was fixed it was then the 1st best one big continent owned but now is the mollest and worst

 the western is the longest now the King at least was sold to Bart's Green for an thousand dollars and is now coasting along after pieces around Rou nd Continent

KING

THE BENNET

This gunboat was the next made and is one hundred feet longer than the King it is one thousand feet long it is well formed and carries thirty two guns
